

Academic Skills Support for Higher Education Students

HE Study Zone:

(Located at the back of the LRC)

Resources available:

- Dissertations
- Academic skills support materials (referencing, academic writing, etc.)
- Priority use of table

Academic Skills One-to-One:

Book a session on any of the following:

- Punctuation
- Referencing
- Writing critically
- Academic writing style
- Reading critically

These services will be delivered in the HE Study Zone at a time convenient to you. Book by emailing Lynette on lgr@asfc.ac.uk or by phone on 0161 666 8215.

Virtual:

We have a range of support materials available through our learning platform. These are updated and added to regularly.

Access this via VLE/Academic Skills

Accessing Online LRC Resources: (eBooks/Journals)

University partner website:

www.staffs.ac.uk

If you are on a course validated by a university partner, you may have access to their web-based services and guides. Ask your tutor for advice.

In-Course Support:

All courses include some level of academic skills guidance. However, we actually encourage all members of our HE community to make good use of all of the other opportunities available.

Email:
LearningCentre@asfc.ac.uk
to book a PC in the LRC or to book a table in the priority
HE Study Zone.
